Library Uncorked: a wine tasting event and silent auction with beer, cider, food, and music. Tickets on sale now at both Libraries $25, for adults.

Proceeds will benefit the Friends of the Library's Youth Literacy Programs which:

- provide local children and their families with hands-on educational programs.
- provide books and materials to encourage children to read and teach parents about early literacy.
- foster school age success through Summer Reading programs that engage children and teens in reading when school is not in session and children are at risk of reading skill loss.
- reach the highest risk children and families inspiring learning for life.
